President's Message

Dear guild members,

I'm so excited for everything that the guild is planning and doing in the New Year. Our January meeting was just the beginning of all of the wonderful things in store. If you missed it, Joan Shimski did an amazing presentation. I would encourage you not to miss any meetings this year. Hilke and Dee have so much planned; you are not going to want to miss out. It's not just the programs that I am excited about. We also have the mystery quilt that Anita has arranged for us. If you haven't cut your fabric, it's not too late. And if you still haven't paid your dues, you can send it to the P.O. Box. Although we still are not able to meet in person, we still can get together virtually, in fellowship and work to better our community. I hope to see you soon on Zoom.

Adrienne

Meeting was called to order at 7:00 PM by President Adrienne Sims. Twenty-one members were in attendance.

Dee Wunder introduced our guest speaker, Joan Shimski. Joan gave a presentation on Stack-n-Whack and Stack-n-Slash methods of making quilt blocks. She discussed the procedures for fabric selection, cutting, angles of the cuts, and rulers that could be used. She presented photographs of completed projects and listed reference books that she had used. The presentation was followed by a brief Q and A session.

Treasurer's Report
Debbie Deboodt reminded everyone that if they were in need of a receipt for items which were donated in 2020 for tax purposes, they should contact her by email giving their name, date of donation, the items donated, to which charity, and the value of the items.

Programs
Hilke Hoefer gave a short tease on next month's speaker, Cindy Herndon, who will show us her craft and creativity. In April, the speaker will be Heidi Hendrix. She will be creating using men's neckties.

Community Service
JoMarie Coster was not able to attend the meeting, Adrienne spoke on her behalf. She is asking that if anyone has quilts or other items to donate, that they mark or tag the items as being donated by the Calvert County Quilting Guild and separate by age, gender, etc. The instructions are in the January newsletter.

Mystery Quilt
Anita Konzak shared photos of fabric that some guild members will be using for the mystery quilt and she shared her own as well. She is very excited about this project.

Show and Tell
Susan Blanton needs your photographs for the newsletter by the 20th of the month. Also, Elizabeth Hubbard will accept your photographs which she will show at the next meeting. Please send them to her at least a week before the meeting.

Clue #1 and Clue #2

Now that the fabric has been cut it is time for piecing! This file contains the copied instructions from Cindy Carter for Clue #1 and Clue #2, which would normally cover two periods (months or weeks) of sewing.

I have created all of my quilt patterns to be used as a FREE resource to other quilters. I am not selling them and explicitly prohibit others from doing so.
That being said, all you wonderful quilters please use them to create quilts for yourself and others. You may sell any quilts you make for a profit (no mass production). You may exhibit your quilts. I would love it if you all can use the patterns as a resource to help others, gifts for others who are sick or in need, our military, charities and fundraisers of any kind. You may use the patterns to teach classes as long as you provide the patterns free of charge to your students.
Quilt store owners – You are free to reproduce any of the patterns and provide them free of charge to your customers. If you can email me photos of any projects your customers complete making these patterns, I would deeply appreciate it.
Please respect the work I have done in creating these patterns. Make sure the patterns are not altered in any way and that proper credit is given if you are reproducing and sharing the patterns with others.
Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.
